

THE WALK

May 14th, 2023

Sunday, May 14th

Happy Mother's Day!

Morning class at 9am in the Youth Room.

We've moved our deeper topics discussion from Wednesdays to Sunday mornings. So come prepared to discuss and learn!

NO EVENING CLASSES THIS SUNDAY.

Many lifegroups do not meet on Mother's Day evening, so we will not meet either.

We are going to postpone our Monday Night Bible study meetings for the month of May and begin fresh in the summer as the interns lead.

Wednesday, May 17th

Class in the Youth Room @7

All high schoolers will be with Ethan in the main room. See details to the right.>>>

All Middle Schoolers will be with Mark Driskill in the jr. high room.

Intern Welcome will be Sunday night, May 28th!

Mission Trip Planning Meetings

Continuing this Wednesday, (the 17th and 24th) our Wednesday evenings will be a time for our high-schoolers to get together and plan the VBS that we will be hosting in Honduras. All high schoolers are invited, even if you couldn't make the trip.

- We will discuss the history and background of Honduras and the efforts of Breaking Chains.
- We will talk about the importance of mission work.
- We will plan for the VBS we will be leading on Saturday, June 10th.

Middle schoolers will be with Mark Driskill in the junior high room for their own dynamic class!

Middle School Mission Week

Middle school mission will be: May 30th-June 1st.

Cost is $20 per student to cover food and the small expense Mission Waco asks.

- We will begin everyday at the church at 9AM for breakfast.
- We will depart to our worksite for the day.
- Our day will conclude at 3:30PM.

All current 6th-8th graders are invited! And we will invite the current 5th (soon to be 6th) graders along with us.
